

Food Share Board of Directors
Roles and Responsibilities
Updated 12/1/2020

Mission:

Food Share is dedicated to leading the fight against hunger in Ventura County. Why? Because no one should go hungry.

Board of Directors:

The Board of Directors will support the work of Food Share and provide mission-based leadership and strategic governance. Day-to-day operations are led by the CEO. The Board of Directors/CEO relationship is a partnership, and the appropriate involvement of each Board Member is both critical and expected.

Specific Board Member responsibilities include:

Leadership, governance and oversight:

- Serving as a trusted advisor to the CEO as he/she develops and implements Food Share's strategic plan.
- Reviewing outcomes and metrics created by Food Share for evaluating impacts, and regularly measuring its performance and effectiveness using those metrics; reviewing agenda and supporting materials prior to board and committee meetings.
- Approving Food Share annual budget, audit reports, and material business decisions; being informed of, and meeting all, legal and fiduciary responsibilities.
- Contributing to an annual performance evaluation for the CEO.
- Assisting the CEO and Board Chair in identifying and recruiting other board members.
- Partnering with the CEO and other board members to ensure board policy directives are carried out.
- Serve on a minimum of one committee and taking on special assignments.
- Representing Food Share to stakeholders, acting as an ambassador for the organization.
- Ensuring Food Share's commitment to a diverse board and staff that reflect the communities served.
- Completes Food Share's on-boarding program within 6 months of becoming a Board member.

Fundraising:

Board Members will consider Food Share a philanthropic priority and make annual gifts that reflect that priority. In order for Food Share to credibly solicit contributions from foundations, organizations and individuals, board members are encouraged and expected make donations commensurate with their capacity.

Fiscal Commitment:

Each board member commits to contributing a total of $10,000 each year; preferably $2,500 in personal giving with an additional $7,500 in cash or determined needed in-kind donations (i.e. food, media, supplies).

Board Terms:

Board Members are eligible to serve a three-year term with reappointment for up to two additional terms (total of 9 years). Reappointment is not automatic and must be approved by the Board Chair and a quorum of the Board of Directors.

Board Participation/Attendance:

Board of Directors may be asked to step down any time during their term by the Board Chair if it is determined they are not providing value in their role as Board Member. Board members are expected to make every effort to attend the monthly board meetings either in person, or by conference call. Board members missing more than two meetings in a consecutive 6 month period will require consultation with the Board Chair to determine if the Board of Director still has a desire and ability to meet the commitment as outlined in this policy.

Qualifications-Knowledge/Skills/Abilities:

The opportunity to serve Food Share as a Board Member requires a passion for the mission, and preferably an individual with board leadership experience. The Board of Directors accomplishments, reputation and networks should provide for attracting other well-qualified, high performing Board Members.

Board Members should have the following qualifications:

- Extensive professional experience with significant leadership accomplishments in business, government, philanthropy, or the non-profit sector.
- A commitment to and understanding of Food Share's beneficiaries, preferably based on experience, volunteer work/community engagement.
- Savvy diplomacy skills and a natural affinity for cultivating relationships and persuading, convening, facilitating and building consensus among diverse individuals.
